

MapObjects IMS Product Life Cycle Support Status

The Product Life Cycle Support Policy is designed to help communicate to ESRI users the technical support resources available during a product's life span and to provide advanced notification of planned changes to available support options. Read more about this in our Product Life Cycle Support Policy

Notes:

- This product is no longer available for sale or upgrade. It was removed from our sales catalog in September 2000.
- The web-enabling developer components were merged into the MapObjects-Windows Edition product beginning with version 2.1
- Developer support from the Developer Support Group for version 2.0 is no longer available.
- Dates listed in a support column provide the date on which the product entered that support level.
